FRIDAY JUNE 22, 1888

GOVERNOR FORAKER, having been interviewed with regard to the nomination of Mr. Thurman, among other things, he said, when asked if Mr. T. would get any Republican votes: "No, he will not get any Republican votes. He is no more honest than most men are, or than all men should be, and so far as his abilities are concerned, whatever they may be, he has at least not made much good use of them in a political sense. He opposed the war, emancipation, peace resumption, and almost everything else that has been done during the last thirty years, of which any American is proud to day. He has simply been a lifelong, unfaltering Democrat of the pro-slavery, anti-war, bourbonism character, who has stood by his party through good report and bad report, always aiding it to the full extent of his abilities in all its copperhead, free trade, fiat money, obstruction politics and tendencies. Oh, no indeed, he will not get any Republican votes."

The managers of the candidates for the Presidential nomination at the Republican National Convention are evidently fighting for time. Neither candidate at this writing has gained any material advantage, strategy being met with strategy. Every device known to political manipulators is being employed in an endeavor to rouse the Convention to an uncontrollable pitch of enthusiasm, in the hope of stamping the delegates to their particular candidate. At the close of the third ballot John Sherman was in the lead, but notwithstanding that his brother's name, the great General's, has been used, and the Convention shouted itself hoarse in singing "Marching Through Georgia," he yet lacks many votes to place him within hailing distance of the coveted prize. The adjournment taken until 7 o'clock is evidently for the purpose of gaining time for caucusing, and this evening the nomination will, in all probability, be made.

A MEMBER of the New York Legislature had the hardihood to introduce a bill raising liquor license high enough to close up a few saloons. This is the way a Democratic paper of New York is struck by it: "It is the Quaker-hanging spirit of Puritanism and the stake-burning spirit of the Inquisition revived in a new form. It is so beset, besotted and bemired in one idea that in order to carry that idea out it would trample down all established forms of law, order and legal usage. Such an element among us is even more dangerous than that which threw the anarchistic bomb at Chicago." Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad. One vote gained by that sort of journalism is at the expense of a thousand lost.

In '83 the Church of England leased to the crown a piece of land for 999 years, or what is termed a "perpetual lease." The time has expired, and the property reverts to the church. Here is a document in force, made away back in the days of King Alfred, compassing a millennium, less one year, and now, after this long period, the occupants must vacate. How strangely this event links the present with the past, and what a proof of the majesty of the law and the stability of the English Government.

A Female Anarchist in Jail.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Mrs. Lucy Parsons, wife of the late A. R. Parsons, the executed Anarchist, was being driven about the streets yesterday afternoon in a buggy, which bore the name of which was a life-sized cravat, of her deceased husband. She was distributing circulars descriptive of the merits of Parsons's book, "Anarchism." A large crowd followed the conveyance, which was led to the police station and its occupants locked up.

An Opinion on Through Rates.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has filed an opinion that the complaint of the Omaha Freight Bureau against various railroad companies is not sustained. The facts are found established as illegal, but do not sustain the illegal practices against the city of Omaha. The complaint is that through rates are made from Chicago to interior towns in Nebraska which are less than the rates to Omaha, plus rates to these towns.

Fred Douglas for Sherman.

CHICAGO, June 22.—To an Associated Press reporter Fred Douglas said last night, John Sherman was his choice ever since Blaine's withdrawal, because he believed in the man. He said he would stand by his authority to see that the colored people of the South should have a free ballot and a fair count. If forced to a second choice he would name General Alger as next best man for the colored man.

Tarpy Sentenced.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Judge Lawler on Wednesday denied the motion for a new trial made in behalf of Pat Tarpy, the thieving cyprian who was recently sentenced to four years' imprisonment at San Quentin. Tarpy was then sentenced to eighty days' confinement in the county jail, and he gave notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

OVER THE WIRES.

Sherman of Ohio Still In the Lead.

The Convention Still Fighting for Time.

The Enthusiasm Waxing Stronger
—The Hall a Scene of Confusion and Disorder.

[The following was received last night after the GAZETTE went to press.]

CHICAGO, June 21.—The roll call proceeded until New York was reached.

5:15 P. M.—Biscoe takes the platform and nominates Depew. The name of Depew was received with applause from all parts of the hall, the New York delegation standing and cheering.

Hartley of Minnesota seconded the nomination of Depew.

SHERMAN NOMINATED.

At 5:30 P. M. Hastings of Pennsylvania took the platform and nominated Sherman.

The mention of Blaine was greeted again with wild enthusiasm.

When Harley concluded the Ohio delegates jumped to their feet and began cheering, in which they were joined by delegates from many other States. Fowler seconded Sherman and great applause.

A floral shield within which was the now famous reply: "No rebel flag shall surrender while I am Governor!" was artistically arranged and set upon the platform and caused great applause, but Foraker ordered it taken down.

Foraker, in his speech said that Sherman belongs to a family of leaders. [Continued applause.]

Georgia, South Carolina, Georgia and Virginia were carried away by enthusiasm, and frantically waved their banners, amid cheering and singing. To add to the din steam whistles commenced blowing. When the entusiasme began to wane, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kansas and Missouri joined in, waving their banners. In vain did the chairman call for order, as it was not until the delegates had voted that the session was order restored. The cheering and singing lasted 12½ minutes.

Longton seconded the nomination of Sherman. H. S. said: "Give us John Sherman and we will run to Wisa and Mahone in Virginia." [Great applause.]

When Wisconsin was reached Senator Spooner nominated Rusk. During the time that Senator Spooner mentioned Blaine, which evoked great and continued cheering.

On motion of Miller of New York, the Convention adjourned until 11 A. M. to-morrow.

JOTTINGS.

Take a look at Bob Christy's new cabinet.

Be sure to buy your best girl a picnic basket, new, pretty and attractive, to be found only at Miss Gibbs.

The Fourth of July ball, which was to have been given by Engine Co. No. 1, has been postponed until Friday, July 6, 1888.

There is nothing finer than a nice book of poems. C. A. Thorson has them in large quantities, also all the standard authors in fine binding.

Blaine is said to be greatly missed from the floor of the Convention, but no more so that would be a discontinuance of J. B. Becker's hot lunches by the people of Reno.

Jesse Longmire is said to have political aspirations but until election he will continue to sell wagons at the well-known Studebaker make at San Francisco prices.

"Take your partners for the ladies!" is a fancy dress bawl, but going to Thurston's for your magazines, stationery goods and novelties is a much more sensible proceeding.

All who have tasted C. J. Brookins' home-manufactured French mixed candies pronounced them superior to any ever sold in this market. Try some of his five-cent cigars.

Vineland, New Jersey, has a woman who is said to live well on nine cents a day—could she buy her grain, vegetables, fruit and vegetables of Bill Haveron, she could still further reduce her expenses.

Atkins may at times put on dudish airs and smoke good cigars, but that does not prevent him from selling wood and lots at reasonable rates. He always gives full measure, as is the trade and not the money he is after.

The Depot Hotel has more healthy-looking, contented boarders than any other hotel in sage-land. That the food is good and wholesome one has only to look at Bob, John or Harry to be convinced. They are living advertisements of the excellent table set at that popular hotel.

Discharged.

Jack Skewes and C. A. Schuman, who had a little shooting festivity recently in Bodie, during which a bystander named Cohen was dangerously shot, have had a hearing and been discharged. Cohen is in fair way to recover, and there will probably be nothing more done about the affair.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Mundy, Esq., County Attorney, Clay County, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied that Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. L. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., sends his testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure, all malarial disease, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50 cents and $1. S. J. Hodgkinson & Co.,

PERSONAL.

Scott Cohn, the well-known Virginian, still lingers by the banks of the Truckee.

Constable Young, the Lovelock Hawkshaw, returned to his "beat" last evening.

H. M. Yerington returned from San Francisco and went on home to Carson this morning.

State Superintendent of Schools Dovey returned from the Pyramid Lake country last evening.

N. A. Hummel, the popular school-master of Wadsworth, paid Reno a flying visit last evening.

George M. Stewart, Chevalier & Co.'s efficient sagebrush representative returned to San Francisco last night.

S. C. Heuk, agent for the celebrated Home Comfort Wrought Iron Stove, is stopping at the Lake House.

Colonel Sam Curtis, the Comstock mining expert, went below last evening to feel the pulse of the sick market.

J. T. Williams, Sheriff of Douglas county, who has been in Reno several days returned to Genoa this morning.

Senator D. R. Lyman, Superintendent of the bonanza mines, was a passenger for San Francisco last evening.

Rev. T. P. Brawshaw is steadily improving and his physician, Dr. Thoma, now has strong hopes of his ultimate recovery.

William Robertson and wife, Mrs. S. M. Morrison, T. Harrison and H. Thompson, all of Toledo, Ohio, are registered at the Depot.

Mrs. Lucy Vandeventer of Carson, President of the W. C. T. U. of Nevada is said to be one of the best lady presiding officers in the country.

Dr. P. T. Kirby, a leading physician of the Comstock and proprietor of the summer resort at Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe, arrived in town last evening.

Miss Effie Phillips of Eureka arrived in Reno last evening, on her way to the National Educational Association meeting, which takes place in San Francisco next month.

Four State officials graced the Depot Hotel with their presence last evening. They were Acting Governor Davis, Secretary of State Dorrance, Superintendent of Schools Dovey and Attorney-General Alexander.

Miss C. M. Burnett, one of the most gifted speakers in the ranks of temperance advocates, departed last evening for Pacific Grove, Monterey county, California, where she has an engagement for the next three months.

Miss Winnie Timmons, who has been engaged in teaching school at Golconda during the term just closed, arrived in Reno last evening, and will shortly proceed to Virginia City, to spend her vacation with relatives there.

Charles Richardson, an old-timer of Reno, but now traveling for a number of San Francisco mercantile houses, returned home last evening with a most pronounced case of rheumatism as a companion. The gentleman is almost helpless, but thinks that the attentive ministrations of his wife and children, aided by the glorious climate, will soon enable him to resume his interrupted travels.

The above mentioned troupe will begin a season of five nights and a matinee at the McKissick Opera House Monday, Box sheet at the Opera House Monday, and thereafter at Nasty's until further notice.

A Token of Respect.

W. J. Luke, who furnished all iron work and done all the iron work for the McKissick Opera House, and whose name was omitted in the description of the opera house, published on the 12th inst., has presented to Major C. W. Booton a beautiful gold chain medal as a token of his respect and appreciation of the many ways in which all his work was received and the cheerful manner in which he was settled for, but such is the feeling of the entire community in regard to the way Major Booton has dealt with all the business men of Reno who have had dealings with him.

Winnebucco was chosen as the place for the next annual meeting.

The Convention voted to have minutes printed, and a committee was appointed for this purpose. A resolution of thanks was given to the President for the able manner in which she had performed all duties; also to Miss Burnett for her assistance.

A vote of thanks was also given to the press for notices and reports; to the railroad for courtesy; to the trustees and chair of the Baptist church; to the pastors for aid and encouragement, and to the friends for entertainment.

The Committee on Plan of Work recommended the various lines suggested by the President, and asked that special prominence be given work for the Nevada Prohibitionist.

At the close of the business, Miss Burnett gave a short talk on "Our Work," that was full of encouragement and enthusiasm. One thought was that temperance work was doing much for woman in bringing her to the front as a worker. The Convention resulted in great good to the work as well as great pleasure to the workers.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all throat, lung and chest affections. Trial the little bottle at Hodges' Drug Store, or the drug store.

The Nevada friends of Rev. W. R. Jenvey will be glad to know that he is appreciated in his new field of labor. The last and greatest honor he has received was to be elected Archdeacon of the diocese, which places him next to the Bishop, with forty-five churches to look after. Mr. Jenvey's energy and organizing talent, combined with his piety and eloquence, have done much for the church in Hoboken, N. J. and the drug store.

A Deserved Distinction.

MT. ST. MARY'S.

Its Tenth School Year Drawing to a Close—Honors to be Conferred.

The written examinations of the senior, junior and intermediate classes of this institution took place two weeks ago with results most gratifying to both teachers and pupils. Wednesday afternoon the young ladies assembled in the Academy Hall, where, in the presence of Rev. Father Kelley and the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's, the juveniles were examined in their various studies.

Rev. Father Kelley, whose taste and abilities lead him to take the deepest interest in the advancement of the higher classes, like all true educators, feels the importance of thoroughness of instruction in the primaries, hence the pleasure he manifests in the progress of these young candidates for future academic honors.

Rev. Father Kelley also presided at the annual drawing for medals in the four classes of Christian Doctrine. The fortunate one in the infant class for the silver medal was little Clara Thrall; second intermediate, silver medal, Miss A. Bull of Sunnyside; junior class, gold medal, Miss Helene Ebert of Boweawee; graduate class, gold medal, Miss Dorothy Bowring of Fort McDermitt. These fortunate ones are very happy over their honors and await, impatiently, "Commencement Day," when the medals will be conferred publicly. The Eleventh Annual "Commencement" will take place on Monday evening, July 24, and considering the success of past closing exercises and present preparations for this annual closing, the friends of the institution may promise themselves a real musical and literary treat.

The six young ladies who will graduate in Misses D. Bowring, C. Laws, F. Morris, B. O'Leary, D. Livermore and M. Gilson. The program of exercises will appear in a few days.

A Successful Dramatic Season.

The Virginia Chronicle of the 20th instant publishes the following: "This evening closes the ten nights' engagement at the Opera House of the Wilber Company. 'Woman against Woman' is billed for the farewell entertainment. Numerous specialties will be introduced, and the play presented with that careful attention to detail which has been a characteristic of the work of the Wilber Company. Arriving here under the disadvantage of being considered a weak combination of admission advertised, the impression made on the opening night was so favorable that the engagement of the company has proved phenomenally successful—opening no night to less than $300, and attaining a popularity which assures a warm welcome should the company again visit the Comstock.

Charles Richardson, an old-timer of Reno, but now traveling for a number of San Francisco mercantile houses, returned home last evening with a most pronounced case of rheumatism as a companion. The gentleman is almost helpless, but thinks that the attentive ministrations of his wife and children, aided by the glorious climate, will soon enable him to resume his interrupted travels.

The above mentioned troupe will begin a season of five nights and a matinee at the McKissick Opera House Monday evening, July 24, at 8 o'clock. The class of 1888 is composed of the following-named young ladies: Misses Mary Gilson, Belle O'Leary, Dolorita Bowring, Clara Laws, Francis Morris, Dolores Livermore.

Still on the Stack.

John Miller and Jack Dobson, colored, and John Osborne, white, the tramps arrested for breaking into a United States bonded car at Winnemucca on the 24th instant, appeared before United States Court Commissioner Juilen yesterday, who heard the testimony of the arresting officers. The day the testimony was concluded, and at 7 o'clock this evening the Commissioner will render his decision. If the evidence warrants it, the accused will be held to appear before the next United States Grand Jury which shortly meets in Carson. United States District Attorney Hayden appeared on behalf of the Government.
